“ Buster used to trim my horses' hooves. He was such a joy to be around. He always brought with him his "toddler" son at that times. Of course, me and Buster were talking and not paying attention to the little boy.....he was sitting in between my horses's front legs just playing.....just happen it was our pride and joy Black Beauty who would not hurt a flee. I told Buster.....than boy is just like his Daddy....ain't afraid of anything. R.I.P. sweet friend.....may the bulls in heaven ride much smoother for you.

“ My heart is saddened by your passing Buster. My memory will always be one of a kind, respectful, funny, easy going, cowboy!!! Your smile and laugh was so warming, your good nature and sense of humor made you a pleasure to be around. You was always good to come and help on Mr. G,K's (Dad's) ranch whenever he needed you; those were some "good times."

My fondest memory will always be of Buster's cute boyish smile and his laugh.. I am very thankful to have known him and wish time had not been cut so short.

Rest in Peace my dear "Buster."
