“ I had the opportunity to talk to Jerry for a few minutes a couple of years ago. He was the same person that he was in High School; kind, caring, soft-spoken. Just an all-around good person. I don't think he was ever known as a prankster but he had us rolling in laughter while talking about the Halloween prank that he pulled on his brother James. Jerry was the kindest person you could ever hope to meet in life. My condolences to his family. Connie Coker
