“ Oh Pooh, We can't believe that that fun loving character is no longer with us. What a great smile, and we'll never forget his "giggle." We had some wonderful times together. Your love for each other and the Lord shown brightly for all to see and we are all blessed by having known him. And, oh, how he loved his family. We wish so much that we could be there to hug you and remind you that you are not alone. We know we'll meet up with Jim again someday. Maybe play a little Scrabble. Until then our prayers are for you and your family. Ernie & Judi

“ Poo and Jim have been dear friends for several years. My wife Helen was especially blessed by the both of them as she visited several times a week with them--while I worked. We often ate Sunday lunch at some restaurant with Poo and Jim prior to moving to Alabama, but enjoyed their company as they visited us a little South of Pleasant View. They were a fun couple. Jim was the quiet one--but could he grill--and Poo the venturesome spirit.

May God make more of their kind.

Poo! I'll just bet Jim and Helen are having a great time in Heaven while you and I grieve. Rest assured there will come a time when our grief will turn into rejoicing.
