

Joanna Knobloch

November 25, 1973 - April 7, 2019

Joanna Joy Knobloch, age 45, of Adams, Tennessee, died Sunday, April 7th, 2019 at Skyline Medical Center in Nashville from injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4 o'clock pm, Saturday, April 13th, at 24 Church in Pleasant View with Pastor Chris Royalty officiating. Burial will follow at EverRest Cemetery with Charles Knobloch, Tommy Swindle, Mark Knobloch, Stan Harriington, Clint Harrington, and Noah Johnson serving as pallbearers.

The family will receive friends at 24 Church on Saturday from 2:00PM until the hour of service at 4:00PM.

There will be no visitation at the funeral home.

Joanna was born on November 25, 1973 in Visalia, California to Steven and Pamela Rowland Rask. She was a special education teacher at Coopertown Middle School and she loved her students. Joanna was a loving wife, a wonderful mother, and she loved to travel and visit historical landmarks. She attended 24 Church, and her desire in life was to glorify her Lord.

Joanna is preceded in death by grandparents, James Rowland, Glen and Betty Rask; sister, Sarah Rask; and son, Caleb Johnson.

Survivors, in addition to her parents, include husband, Charles Knobloch; son, Noah Johnson; daughter, Grace Johnson; grandmother, Peggy Rowland; brother, Christopher Rask; sisters, Corrie Rask, Hannah (Tommy) Swindle; and many loving uncles, aunts, and cousins.

If so desired, memorial contributions may be made to Samaritan's Purse at P.O. Box 3000, NC 28607.

“ Mrs. Knobloch was a wonderful lady. I taught with her at Coopertown Middle School for a number of years, and also taught her son Caleb martial arts. She was kind, thoughtful, and a fantastic teacher. My thoughts and prayers are with her family during this difficult time. I am donating to Samaritan's Purse in her honor.

“ My grandson Dawson Tinsley was a student of Joanna’s. I attended numerous field trips with them. Joanna said I was part of their class family. In this last year we text and talked about the lord. She was a wonderful Christian lady. She loved Dawson and he loved her as well. During his eighth grade football ceremony he was ask who has inspired him the most. They announced Joanna knobloch. When he heard about her passing away. He said Momma she taught me to read and now she won’t be able to come to my graduation. We loved her so much and she definitely will be missed. Although I know she is resting in the arms of Jesus with her son Caleb by her side. RIP my precious friend until we meet again.
