“ Mr. Joe was always smiling and kind. I remember so well associating him with Coca Cola for years after the plant here shut down. Driving by just didn't look right not seeing some of the men out and about or at the small groceries delivering. God bless his family.

“ *To Willie Ann and Family:
I'm so sorry to read of Joe's passing. I've known Joe and the entire Moulton family almost my entire life from our wonderful years at Mt. Zion Methodist Church, Coopertown School and later on when Mr. Olaf and Mrs. Gertrude, Ruth and Joe were next door neighbors of my parents on Highway 49. I remember Joe for his sweet smile, his friendly outgoing personality and his beautiful singing voice. I know he will surely be missed by your family and all the people who knew and loved him. May God bless and comfort you at this difficult time and in the days ahead and may we all know how blessed we were to have known Joe and the Moulton family.*
