“ Johnny B...my friend, my brother in Christ I learned so much from you. You had a wit like none other. I was blessed to have time on Senior Saints Trips, dinners on Wednesday evening and visits at their home. He was a caring man. He put God before everything and his family next. He loved to sing. He is already missed. We love y'all sparkling_heart

“ My brother there is many things that come to mind. The one stands out and I have never forgotten is when I was sixteen and had been working since I was 15 . He came to me one-day and ask me have you been saving any of your money since you been working I answered yes but I'm not telling you how much He laughed and said can you make a 96.00 a month note I said for what He replied a car . She is all yours I would love for you to have it if you can. I'll tote the note and you pay me. I couldn't believe my brother would do that for me. Yes yes I answered. Beautiful car he had bought the car and painted it put new tires on it was in perfect condition. Inside was redone looked great . I loved that Nova my first car. My brother done what he didn't have to do for me . Not only love he showed for me but trust also. That always stayed with me. We have had some bad days but that's because we are both so stubborn just alike in many ways. I will truly miss him.
