“ I have so many memories and they all involve good times spent together. I was so glad when David and Margaret got together. We stood up for them when they married and have been best friends for all these years. Always looked forward to our time spent together. David was always a favorite with my grand kids. Always was a great buddy to them. I remember David always had a pack of Juicy Fruit gum in his shirt pocket for my little Maddie. I am sure she will remember this forever and the kids will miss him. My kids always respected the great long lasting friendship their dad had with David. They knew the friendship was special and David was the brother Jimmy never had. And I have always told Margaret "We were separated at birth" So thankful for our friendship I will forever miss David. I share your loss and send my love. Sharon Miracle and family
