“ I am so shocked and saddened to find out you have left this earth PJ. But I am so happy to know that you have entered into the glorious presence of Jesus Christ, fully whole and well. What a life you lived unto God! You faithful servant, more faithful and obedient to God than anyone I've ever known. I could never put into words how thankful I am to God for bringing us together as He did, and to this day I lean on everything you taught me. I love you. Please give precious MB a hug from me. Until we meet again. Love from Radio.

“ Rest easy, old friend. I knew John from our hometown of Woburn, Massachusetts, and we shared memories from our time working together at the New England Rehab Hospital. One moment that stands out was in 1972, when John and I were walking around downtown Boston. We passed The Music Hall and learned that David Bowie and the Spiders from Mars were playing that night. Based on John's word—"I hear they are really good"—we bought tickets and had an unforgettable night. Thanks for the memories, John.
