“ Carol and I would like offer our condolences to the family of John Hayes. He was a really good friend to us while we were students together at Lipscomb. As we lived in Gallatin for a few years years and still have relatives there, we heard of John’s great work at Goodpasture and his preaching over the years. We know he will be missed but all can remember his life well lived.

“ John and I started to Lipscomb as freshmen in the fall of 1960. My roommate Joe Lyle and I became fast friends with Hayes as we called him. John and us were gym rats always playing basketball either intramural or pickup. We did that until Russ Combs and John invented sink ball to play in the dorm rooms with a ping pong ball and the wash sink in the rooms at Elam.

Thanksgiving of 61 we were asked to come home with John to Ironton and that's where we met Gertrude one more sweet lady.

I could go on and write a book about our family association at Madison church and Goodpasture Linda and I with John and Diane. About how he stole Diane's heart before she could marry a schoolmate of mine.

Hayes as we called him will be missed. He was a blessing to us all

In Christian love Tom Kilpatrick fitz as he called me.

Heaven is just a bit sweeter with him there.
