“ I was honored to have had John's parents as two of my teachers at Sacramento High School.(John's mother was a great influence in molding me to become a teacher. John had wonderful guidance from his parents) I was also glad to have had John as a really good student when I came back from K WC to teach. John Stringer was a fine man. I send meaningful good and happy memories to the family. I'm sure you have the same wonderful memories of John Stringer
