“Johnnie Mae and I were dear friends during our childhood. She actually lived in a house my daddy built and which I later moved to and grew up in. I had no idea her last name was also Gibson. We know none of my husband's ancestors, so it would be interesting if we were related. I would certainly have been to the service if I had been in town. However, it's my grandson's 8th birthday so we had to be in Auburn, AL.

I have so many memories of Johnnie, Clara, John, Ava, and Callie. I also have several photos I need to find. One, in particular, is at a slumber party at my house when I think I was in 8th grade and she was in 9th. She told us all about high school. I can't help but smile when I think of all the good tiimes.

I share the grieve of each of you. God bless you all. Love, Patti
