“ Our Aunt Judy. What a precious woman. I never ever remember seeing her without a smile on her face. But I understand she had some health problems and now she can rest peacefully. To the kids there's nothing harder than losing your Mom, but lean on each other and it'll get easier. God bless you all. RONNIE

“ Uncle Edward and my dear cousins, Words cannot describe my feelings right now. I want you to know that some of my fondest childhood memories are of my time spent with Aunt Judy. She was a wonderful person and I already miss her deeply. May God bless you and comfort you during these very sad times. My love to you all.
