“ She was a precious soul and a kind woman. She loved to cook and try new recipes. Her sourdough bread and rolls will be missed! She loved her grandsons, Zachary and Jacob more than anything in the world and they adored her. Her happy little voice will be missed forever. We love you Grandmommie 🥰

“ I was in Judy’s Sunday school class with her for many years. She ALWAYS had a sweet spirit and I will truly miss her.

To the family: I am so sorry for your loss.

While I had lost touch with her these past years, i have remembered her often and I am sad to hear this news.

With love in Christ,

So sorry to read this today ! Judy was a friend of ours for years ! Ours son’s went to school together , from beginning to Graduation ! Played sports together , hung out together!

She was a “ special woman “ always

Smiling ! If I ran into her @ the grocery , she always ask how everyone was ! Jerry, my husband worked with her the entire time she worked at CEMC ! So sad !
