“ Junior man i miss you so much. we were together every day from our freshman year to now. Man ima miss you when school starts back cause now im going to be in the morning gym where we shot every morning till class started by myself. I still remember you like you are still hear with me just not in person but your spirit. We had one more year left and we would be on stage graduating in front of are class and family and friends but that won't happen cause you ant hear but god is my witness the times that i was with you i will cherish every one like its my last ima see you again one day in heaven. Love and miss you junior:( class of 2012 will never forget you...
