“ I was very blessed to have had you in my life and for you to be my aunt (My favorite Aunt). I have so many wonderful memories with you. You always had a kind and beautiful Heart. You were a very loving wife and Mother. I am going to miss you dearly but I am grateful for the memories that we all have had and I will treasure them forever. I love you so much!!! I know that you are now God's singing Angel and you will be shining Brightly in Heaven.

Mom loved singing, so I know she has to be singing in Heaven. You are so right about her! She was an amazing Daughter, Sister, Mom, Wife, Grandma, Great Grandma, etc. I love the memories we have of her. I have so many good memories of when you were little. I am so glad she isn't suffering anymore and it was so sad to see her like that. She wasn't the same for almost a year. I didn't like knowing she might have been suffering. I love you cuz!

Me and memaw loved singing together and she would encourage me all the time. I could always go to her and bestfriend when ever I needed i was trying to see her before she died but didn't make it in time. I'm happy to see her at the viewing though. Rest in peace memaw I'm here for best friend and will try my best to help him when I can. You will always be my memaw in my heart. I can't let go of you. You're oldest grandchild lisa Marie King watts.

I love you all so very much. I did not see her either in person. I did not want to see her while she was sick. I had a lot of faith in God healing her. It is her time with God now. I am selfish and wish she was here with us, but I know it's her time to be that beautiful singing angel that she is. Anyone that has ever known my Aunt karene, was blessed in this life to have met such a beautiful person. She was so nice and friendly. When she loved she loved to the fullest. She was so funny at times without even knowing it. She always took good care of me and always welcomed me into her home. I am glad i did see her before she was sick when she came to visit Tennessee, right before she moved back. Never will I find someone like you!!! I miss you so much already! I am so glad that you and uncle ricky chose each other to be partners in life, you two were definitely a match made in heaven 🙏❤️. I love you forever and always!
