“ My deepest sympathies. In all of life this is probably the messiest part. Laughing and crying, sadness and soaring, whispers and singing, straight talk and humor all happening in a context where it seems that it should be orderly and solemn.

There is great comfort in knowing that an essence of your mom is present in who you are. You are the tribute to her love and care. Her attributes are part of you and you will carry that goodness forward through the rest of your life.

“ *Glenn, Emerson and Family,
I hope you remember me as Margaret Tolleson's daughter (Aunt Annie's niece). I just want to let you know that I am thinking of you at this time. Due to the weather, I probably will not be able to get out to come to the funeral home. I am handicapped and unable to do as I want. I have many fond memories of you, Sam and Mildred visiting at the Smith home. I miss Sam so very much. God bless you and I do wish I could see you.*

In His Grace,

Nancy Williams Lewis
