“ So very sorry for your loss. I remember going over to your house to spend the night. You parents were always so kind and your mom always had a nice dinner or snack for us after school. I loved looking at all her treasured antiques. Tess, I hope we can talk soon. Comfort and hugs to your family. -Kris Dallman

“ With the Holts gone so goes the Phyllis Ave. gang. We will always remember these wonderful friends and the great fun, porch and driveway sitting. And Oh the dinners at the Flaming Pit and backyard parties. We celebrated Children and then grandchildren. Kay's wonderful smile will always be a memory. Frank and Byron just enjoyed teasing each other. We were blessed to call them friends.

“ When we met Frank and Kay at Our Lady of Lourdes, it was really a pleasure. Frank and Hugh understood the newspaper business and shared some stories. Kay was such a fun and determined lady. Even after Frank's death, it meant a lot to see Kay sitting in church before Mass and having a chance to catch up on things. She was proud of her family and her upbeat attitude was a tribute to her. Whenever we came back to Springfield, we looked for her at Mass. She will be missed.
