“ I have known Kathy her whole life as she is my first cousin. She and my sister Sally were the same age. We grew up together in Indiana but lost touch after moving away and getting married. Kathy stayed in contact with my daughter Shannon on Facebook and was supportive and encouraging to her. For that I will always be thankful. She shared her faith in ways that were kind and non-threatening. She will be missed.

“ I have known Howard, Kathy and Ryan for over 8 years. I worked with Howard and Ryan quite a few years ago and went to church with Howard and Kathy. I still see Kathy's smiling face handing out bulletins and greeting everyone with a smile! I always got a hug. I always enjoyed Facebook encouragement from Kathy. She was a true friend and loved so many. I can truly say I am happy for her now! No more tears or pain for my friend! Our fleshly pain here on earth is only temporary.....one day we will join her with our MAKER. Thank you God! I will surely miss my friend! Melanie Loper
