“ A friend, a neighbor, Sunday School Classmate for many years and always a busy, busy lady! I celebrate the years that found her entertaining, decorating endlessly and hustling that fruit to the market place with Don! Now, I know that she is finally at peace with her Savior and enjoying the joys she so deserves, the battles over...the victory is hers! Rest in peace Ms. Katie! God Bless you and the loved ones you left behind 🙏🙏🙏

I knew Betty Kate from the day she was born because I was born the very same day. We went to separate schools but were always friends. She was a beautiful sweet girl and we enjoyed discussing our birth dates whenever we met. Jo Ann Adams Garrett.

So sorry to hear of this. Always a sweet lady and leader in our GA group at church when growing up in the 60s.
