“ William Ray, Melinda and family: We were so sorry to hear of Kay's passing - our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Kay and I became friends years ago when William Ray was playing Jr. Pro football and Nancy was cheering - your family lived on the same road with us for years. Although I lost contact with your mom in the last years of her life I often thought about those fall evening when we sat and talked, laughed and enjoyed watching you kids practice. Life somehow seemed simpler then. She will be greatly missed by her friends and family. May God bless you all doing the days and weeks ahead. Richard & Frances Warren

“Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.” ~Author Unknown
There are no words that anyone can say to take away the pain and sadness of your loss. May you find some comfort in knowing that Kay is in a much better place than we all are and you will see her again some day. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers as you are going through this difficult time.

“ Kay was a very special lady. She and I worked on the same floor. One day we got to talking and she told me about her condition. After that, I would ask her everytime I saw her how she was. One time I remember going to her desk and checking on her. As I left I saw tears fall from her eyes. Kay became even more special to me. I realized how much she truly appreciated people. She will be dearly missed.

I send my condelences to Kay's family. I know you all will miss her dearly. May peace comfort you during this difficulte time knowing that she is no longer in pain. She is looking down on all of you and she is proud. She will always be with you in spirit. God Bless. Kim

“ With deepest heartfelt sympathy. My thoughts and prayers are with the family of Kay Milburn. Kay was a true friend with a warm and giving heart. She truly touched my life. She fought her battle with grace and dignity. I always told her "she was a better woman than me". I will always remember the good times and conversations we shared.
God Bless
