“ It has been an honor, privilege and blessing to have been Kent's next door neighbor for more than 20 years. We will miss jump starting your truck every winter and chatting over the fence for more years than I can count. We'll continue keeping a watch over the house and keeping the lawn mowed, we still half expect you to pull up in your truck and leave early in the mornings. We will truly miss you Kent, may God keep you in his hands and your family shrouded in love during this difficult time. We will keep you, your family and friends in our hearts and prayers.

“ Kent was always the most kind man when I encountered him. He was always willing to do anything to help someone out to make their day easier. May he rest in peace and may God wrap his family in love and comfort during their loss.
