“ Best friends as kids, roomed together when we worked out of town, rented our first house together when we were 18, managing rent by working two low paying jobs, but we managed. helped each other throughout life when we could. Wayne was my best man in my wedding. Never will i forget all good times and bad times that we had. we argued and sometimes fought but that's what brothers do. i love you man and i'm going to miss you. The last thing i'll be able to do for you is carry you to your place of rest. it will hurt me but i'm going to do it because i know you would have done it for me. Love you man.
