I hope that God's promise of a resurrection (John 5:28,29) along with your cherished memories of Lattie, will bring you comfort during this difficult time. I, with you, look forward to the fulfillment of God's original purpose for the earth when we can live forever on a peaceful earth along with our loved ones. - Psalms 37:9-11. Even death will be no more!-Revelation 21:3,4. May these promises be of comfort to you as you gain the strength and inner peace to cope with the days ahead.

“ To The Koss Children and Loved Ones,
Your Mother was a dear friend of mine as we were in Sunday School together for many years. I also knew her when I was a child and your parents started their family at 708 Cheatham Street while renting from my father. I remember coming to visit and the Christmas tree was in a baby pen so the ornaments would not be taken off!!! Mrs. Koss was so kind to call regularly to check on me through my many surgeries. She was kind and caring to all she knew. Her creativity was used as she shared her talents in helping others decorate or bake for parties. She loved helping others even though she had a house full of children. I am blessed to have known her. You all have wonderful memories to keep in your hearts and to share with the family as years go by. Nancy
