“ Pearlie and I were in at least one class together at Joelton High School. One thing that stands out in my memories of Pearlie is how she enjoyed "dressing up" and painting her lips for school. She seemed very business-like to me. I liked Pearlie a lot; we crossed paths very few times after school days. We recognized each other one day a few years back at a little café that was short-lived in Joelton. 'Seems like we chatted and caught up for an hour or longer that morning.
My thoughts and sympathy to Pearlie's loved ones. I know you'll miss her. I'm sorry I didn't know of her passing in time to attend the services. Sincerely, Sue Massey Holland
