“ My deepest sympathy to Lesley's family and those that loved her...I knew Lesley from when she lived in Roanoke Virginia and I would go visit her with my sister, Sandee Mauro. I liked her the minute I met her. She was a strong woman for all she had come through and I truly saw such love and strength in her. So very sad to know that such a kindhearted spirit has gone too soon. I will always remember her love for her family...her never ending love for her first baby Sarah, always for Nicole as well, and of course her little Olivia surely brought her so many blessings and memories. May all the families memories be blessings. I will always remember the very best of her! Prayers to all that loved her so very much.
