

Lewis Hardy Hunt

April 20, 1925 - November 30, 2009

Lewis Hardy Hunt, of Pleasant View, Tennessee, son of John and Ollie Hardy Hunt, died November 30, 2009. He is survived by wife Anne Clara Carpenter Hunt, a marriage of 59 years. Three children are Robert "Bob" (Kathey) Hunt of Covington, Tennessee; William "Bill" (Karen) Hunt of Pleasant View; and Lisa (Steve) Tally of West Lafayette, Indiana. Six grandchildren are Anne, Nathan, Benjamin, Joel, Emma, and Jill. Surviving siblings are Eugenia Miles and Ruth Scott of Dickson, and John Edward Hunt of Oklahoma City.

Deceased: Robert Henderson Hunt, Clarence Winston Hunt, and Henry Warren Hunt. Mr. Hunt graduated from Cheatham County High School in May, 1943 and entered military service in June. Stationed in Italy, he flew missions over Austria as an engineer-gunner on a B-24 bomber. At war's end, he entered the University of Tennessee, majoring in vocational agriculture, and graduated with a B.S. degree; later he received his M.S. in school administration from Austin Peay State University. His first teaching job was at Byars Hall High School, Covington, in the agriculture department. Afterward he returned to Middle Tennessee and spent 36 years at Jo Byrns High School, in Cedar Hill. The greatest pleasure of his life was interacting with the youth of Robertson and surrounding counties. A member of the Pleasant View United Methodist Church since age 12, he participated in the work and leadership of the church. He enjoyed the music program and encouraged youth activities. Funeral services are scheduled for 10am Thursday, December 3, 2009 at Pleasant View United Methodist Church. Visitation Wednesday, December 2, 2009 from 1-4 p.m and 5-7 p.m. at Austin-Bell Funeral Home, Springfield.
