“ So sorry to hear about Linda's passing. I visited the office of the title company that she worked with and worked with Linda a lot. She was charming, funny, a pleasure to work with and knew her stuff. I really missed her when she retired. We had some common friends in the business and would share stories about them. I am sure there is another Angel in heaven now. Tony Whitson

Linda was a wonderful friend and such a sweet person. We watched movies together and shared many laughs.. We even spent New Years eve together one year at my house. We usually went to church together. I will miss her very much. I know she is rejoicing in Heaven and so glad to be reunited with Freddie, Ruth, her parents and many more. Freddie, Pam and the family are in my prayers. I loved her very much.. Love Diane Nash
