“ Even as I sit here and see the words written in Black and White that you are gone it still does not seem real. I can not ever remember a single time in my life that I did not have you there when I needed you or you needed me. I look at your pictures and cry my eyes out. It wasn't supposed to be like this. I shared so many things with you growing up you was my confidant, my sidekick, my other sister, my best friend and my shoulder to lean on when things would fall apart. Through the boyfriends, the heartbreaks, the learning to swim and skate, putting on makeup, growing from skinny little girls into young women, getting our first Car, getting our first tattoo together, becoming Wives, Mom's and then Grandma's. Oh the memories we have made. I will forever hold them dear to my heart. We made a book together not a short story and I would not have traded it for anything. I know right now you are with Phil and you are feeling a love and peace that you have never felt before in life. You have left a huge hole in so many hearts Lisa. Mine will never heal. I will forever Miss you and Love you and be grateful I had a friend to share my life with like this. I am so sorry Glenda, Gary, Bubba, Tiff, Brent and Family.
