“ Sustah, was the name I heard granny Ann being called by my granny, Daisy. I know they did love each other. I remember going to visit Mrs Ann several times when I was younger and if you didn't eat something while you was there (even if you'd just finished eat before you arrived) she would give you a look the made you want to eat...hungry or full. She was a one of a kind kinda gal. She will be missed by a great many folks.
