“ I am so happy that I, Susan, and Daisy went to see Aunt Lorene that last time before the snow and ice arrived. She was the best! My favorite. Not only was she a great cook, she always made me laugh also. We had visited her off and on throughout the years. I think she still recognized us on our last visit, but, I am not sure. We still had fun though. She thought I was a lot of different people and she took me with her on her trip down memory lane. What a day! We drove, we visited places and people. Lots of people, including Mama. I think we even got in trouble a few times. I went along with her-- pretended to be whomever she wanted me to be. She made me laugh and cry. She could be so funny. It was one of the best visits we had. It will always be a treasured memory for me as she also will always be. I am so glad she was my Aunt-- So glad that we went. I hoped to run into some of the family there, but, each time I went-- they had already left. I want to send my condolences to all. I am so sorry she is gone. We were going back today, and, I just saw her obituary by accident while looking at another family members whom just passed. I did not even know she was gone until now. Is really a shock, but would have really been had we found it out after arriving at the nursing home. So, I apologize to her immediate family that I could not share my condolences sooner. She lived a long, active, good life, and, I thank her for all the sweet memories-- especially that last visit and the fun trips we took together-- all her memories pouring out of her of all her beloved family. Hope I live my life so as to see her again someday. Love you Aunt Lorene. You will hold a special place in my heart.

“ I remember many trips to TN to visit Mama and family. There was always fun,laughter,hugs,kisses,country music playing, family stories to listen to and FOOD,FOOD,FOOD! I think we had food 24 hours a day! Mama was a wonderful cook and baker. Randy, Tammy,Jimmy and I always enjoyed her from SCRATCH biscuits. They were delicious and melted in your mouth. Mama or Murph always made sure to make batch to bring back to Indiana. Mama loved her family and she and her husband Bill gave a good foundation of Faith, manners and respect to their children. I am especially thankful to them for raising their son,Randy to be a true Southern gentleman. Now parents and all their children are all together again. We will always love and miss them

“ I remember like it was yesterday going on vacations to see Grandma and the family when I was young. As a family , we normally did things closer to home but ,as a kid, going to Grandmas house in Madison TN was, to me, like Magellan setting out to uncharted territory. Grandma and I always shared a close GrandmaGrandson relationship. It was as if we were partners in crime. She or I was always telling a joke or giving each other a look to make the other laugh or smile. It was always an inside wink or a nod. I can still remember hearing family asking aloud ,almost out of earshot, Where was Granny or Where was Jimmy There was little doubt that Granny and I were taking one of our famous walks and she was telling me stories or making me laugh with a joke, or I her. Much to my Mom and Dads chagrin we'd take a walk down the street to a little store on the corner called Jim Dandy. Now I never asked, but that woman always insisted on getting me a comic book or a small toy to keep my attention when we got back. I never needed those things though, as Grandma was always interesting and hilarious enough for me to keep me thinking and occupied. I will miss her. I wish I could have seen her more, but I know she knew, just how much I loved her and I hope she realized how I treasure the times I spent with her .
