“ I worked with Lorrie at United Methodist publishing house for several years. We became very close friends and socialized outside of work. We had the best of times that I will never forget. I loved her and simply heartbroken that she has passed away. I just recently found out and I am in a state of shock. We did lose contact over the years, but she was such a beautiful person inside and out. The world has lost one sweet and kind soul. I hope you are resting easy my friend.
