“ Ms. Louis provided child care for my children. She was the one I trusted the most with my little ones. I left them daily without guilt because I knew that she loved them like her own. She poured her heart and soul into my babies every day. She was selfless, caring, gentle and kind. She welcomed them into her home daily with a smile on her face. She made Cara & Chase feel safe and she gave them love. I know that there was a special spot in heaven for her. I will always cherish my sweet memories of Ms. Louise. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time.
