“ We thought the world of Mr. Glen. He was a wonderful, kind and godly man. It was a privilege to call him family. I will miss the stories of his youth and his carpentry adventures.

“ I worked with Glenn for many years he was as kind and good a man as I have ever known. I remember we were working a job in Nashville and would stop at this little store If Glenn saw a street person hanging out he would offer to buy them something to eat and drink. One time this guy went in with us walked around for a minute and left. Glenn asked me why he left I told him the guy was standing in front of the beer cooler he replied well I cant help him with that. My heart and sorrow go out to all his family and friends God bless you all.

Allen -- Dad always had kind words when speaking about you. Thank you for sharing that story. He was always willing to buy food/drink, but never gave money.
