

Ludie Wallace

November 11, 1934 - December 19, 2018

After an extended battle with Alzheimer's, Ludie Cooksey Wallace passed away on December 19, 2018, in Chattanooga, TN. The daughter of Helen Rae and Andy Edward Cooksey, she was born November 11, 1934. She was preceded in death by her husband, Morris Elliott Wallace, brothers Earl Cooksey, Carter Cooksey, and Roger Cooksey (Dorothy). She is survived by her only daughter and Son-In-Law, Alexa and Jeff Lett, granddaughter Sadie, and brother Lucian Cooksey (Theresa).

Mrs. Wallace lived in Cedar Hill, TN, most of her life and was an active member of the Cedar Hill Baptist Church, where she sang in the choir and served as organist for many years. She was also an active long-time member of Tennessee Farm Bureau Women.

The service will be held at Austin & Bell Funeral Home in Springfield, Tennessee, December 28, 2018. Friends and family will be received at 10:00AM with a service to follow in the chapel at 12:00 PM with Dr. Eric Taylor. Entombment will be a private family service.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to: Cedar Hill Baptist Church, P. O. Box 205, 112 South Main Street, Cedar Hill, TN 37032 or Alzheimer's Association National Office, 225 N. Michigan Avenue, FL. 17, Chicago, IL 60601.

Alexa would like to thank the tireless energy and support she received in the care of her mom from the Morningside staff in Springfield, TN, Cedar Hill Baptist Church, Lonnie and Diane Whitlow, neighbors of Buzzard Creek Road, her loyal friend Jane Brendell and the countless people associated with Manor House and Hospice of Chattanooga.

Austin & Bell Funeral Home in Springfield is in charge of these arrangements.

“ I have many fond memories from when Ludie first moved to Cedar Hill and brought Alexis to school to her bragging on Alexis after she started her business in Chattanooga. She was your friend but don't tread on her path for she would tell it like it was! I loved being around her. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Sending hugs and love as I just got out of the hospital and am not well myself to come .
