“ I have so many memories with Malu. Some good and some bad. Those brought us closer together. We shared our secrets and cried together. We raised our kids together. There is so much more, a life time worth. She was special. A very compassionate heart. A big heart. She had another side. She was very out spoken and didn't like sugar coating anything. Even that came from the heart. I have lost a best friend and those are hard to come by. She gave me so much I will eternally be grateful to her. Malu I love you so much and I will miss you dearly. You are with your Family now. Please give my Parents hug. We will see each other again someday. We are in God's hands.
