“ I am so sorry that this note is late. It is with deep heartfelt sympathy and yet the greatest gratitude that we pause to say we are sorry for your loss of Mack Fletcher an American WWII Hero. But we also say a bigger thank you to Mack for his service to this great country we live in today. For without men and women like Mack who saw the need for their country the GREAT USA like many before him and after him, we would not be a free country, BECAUSE FREEDOM IS NOT FREE. On behalf of The American Legion Post 48 Springfield and every Veteran there is, I Again say God bless you and keep you in your time of sorrow and give you comfort.
