“ I worked with Mackie at the YMCA for many years. She was always so uplifting. We loved talking about our gardens and our flowers. Heaven gained a beautiful angel.

“ Mackie was such an upbeat person, who greeted us daily at the Y with a smile so early in the morning. She made some good coffee and joined in some of the practical jokes. We were all saddened when she was diagnosed and many prayers have gone up in her behalf. Mackie fought hard. May she enter her rest. Many down here can give her outstanding references for greeter into that mansion that Jesus has gone to prepare for those who love him. May God comfort those left behind, Joe Rushing of the 5 am early birds at the Y.
