“ I worked with Marc for the past 3 years. As others have mentioned here, Marc was a beam of light and always extremely positive. When an issue arose, Marc handled it with a calming demeanor. I learned so much from Marc, which I will carry on in my life. Rest in peace, Marc. You had a positive impact on so many and you will be so dearly missed.

“ Been with OHL/Geodis for 22 years and met Marc early in my time there. I always was able to talk to him as a mentor and I can eventually say friend also as we shared stories and had similar situations with children around the same time of the children's age and year. After he left Geodis, I contacted him several times (and he contacted me also) and stayed in touch. He will be missed and may he rest in peace and be re-united with several of his family!

“ My journey started with Marc back in March of 2002. He hired me at OHL to be another piece of the EDI puzzle for a 3 man team that would explode into what we are now at GEODIS. He believed in me and rolled the dice to form the man that I am today. He mentored me, pushed me, trained me, looked out for me, always had my back and my career exploded because of this man. He was a true friend always and forever. We stayed in touched after the great years of work family. Great friend and he will be missed forever. I could go on about the impact he had on all of our lives. What a great dude!

“It is with a heavy heart and profound sadness that I pay tribute to an extraordinary individual, Marc Garner. Marc was not just a former colleague and manager but a cherished mentor and friend whose impact on my life is immeasurable.

I met Marc in December 2013, and from our very first meeting, I knew he was one of a kind. He was more than just a manager during our years working together; he was a guiding light, offering a unique perspective on life that he exemplified in every action. Marc was universally liked and respected. His presence uplifted everyone he encountered, and I count myself incredibly fortunate to have known him and to have a treasury of fond memories.

Beyond the challenges in his personal life, Marc remained an unwavering source of inspiration. His unwavering spirit, infectious optimism, and ever-present smile defined him. In the face of adversity, he never complained, teaching us the power of resilience and the art of embracing life with grace.

An avid football fan, Marc's passion led him to start a Fantasy Football league in 2016. This season, he claimed his first league victory—a moment of triumph and joy. Our football rivalry, him being a die-hard Cowboys fan and I a steadfast Niners supporter, was a source of endless banter and camaraderie. Those moments are now cherished memories.

As I reflect on Marc's journey, his resilience, kindness, and unwavering positivity stand out. His loss leaves a void that cannot be filled. Though I will miss him dearly, I find comfort in knowing that he is now reunited with his loved ones on the other side.

Rest in peace, Marc. You will be deeply missed but never forgotten. Your legacy lives on in the hearts and minds of all who had the privilege of knowing you.

“ I had the pleasure of visiting with Marc several times before he went to Heaven. I had the honor to work with Marc for 25 years. His faith was unshakable, his dedication was never questioned, he inspired people to do better! Even in Marc's final hours he never complained and lived with grace. His final chapter in his earthly life was shared with Cindy, his girl friend, and earth angel. Marc's heart no longer beats but his life is a testament to his faith on earth, and now rests in peace with our Lord, with his family by his side. Rest in peace Marc, well done!

“ Thanks for sharing this Tarun.

I've known Marc at work. I worked with him. I worked for him. I ran/competed against him. I competed/ran alongside him on many occasions. He has been a mentor and strong force that stood-by all ups and downs in my short career. Showed and educated me on how to handle tough situations and the importance of family and friendships.

Never raised a voice or complained about any thing. He always had positive vibes.

He has been a mentor even after stepping out of GEODIS.

He'll always be in my thoughts for entire life.
