“ Marcia Jean was one of my favorite Aunts, always happy and always nice to me. I wish I could be there for her funeral and to hug Uncle Fred, but I just can not travel much anymore, especially on Interstates. I will just remember her the last time I seen her, laughing and happy. God Bless! Joyce Morris Taylor

“ Our heartfelt prayers go out to Fred and all the family for your loss. Marcia Jean will be greatly missed in our neighborhood. But we join you in thanking our Lord that she is no longer sick and struggling. She is enjoying the beautiful flowers in heaven. One of our favorite memories of Marcia Jean is when our oldest son, Brian was going through her lunch line and she would always pile up his plate and tell him to come back for seconds. He loved her so much!! He always came home telling us that she took good care of him!! Good memories!!
