

Margaret Lee Petty Centimole

June 3, 1924 - December 30, 2011

Margaret Lee Petty Centimole died peacefully on Friday, December 30, 2011 at her home in Greenbrier, Tennessee surrounded by her family. Margaret was born in Bowling Green, Kentucky on June 3, 1924 to the late Buford Petty and Lautellia Smith Petty. She graduated in 1942 from Briston School. Margaret was an active member of The Church at Grace Park and enjoyed fellowshiping with her Sunday School Class, Young at Heart. Margaret will be dearly missed by her family and friends. She is survived by her husband, Frank A. Centimole; eight children, Frank (Nancy) Centimole, Jr., Darrell (Christine) Thomas, Steve (June) Centimole, Wanda (Bob) Cook, Mike Centimole, Ricky (Regina) Thomas, Fran (Louie) Roberts, Rita (Jim) Hobbs; eighteen grandchildren; seventeen great-grandchildren; one brother, Melvin Ray (Jane) Petty; and one niece. Margaret will be remembered most by her family for her life of love, grace, compassionate kindness, and service to others. Visitation will be held at Austin & Bell Funeral Home in White House, Tennessee on Saturday 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Also one hour prior to the service, which is to be held in the Chapel at The Church at Grace Park. The service is on Sunday, January 1, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. Burial will be at Bethel United Methodist Church Cemetery in Bowling Green, Kentucky. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that donations be made to The Commonwealth Benevolence Fund of The Church at Grace Park, to honor Margaret's heart and care for others. Arrangements in the care of Austin & Bell Funeral Home, 533 Hwy 76, White House, Tennessee (615-672-5000