“ My Dearest Sister,

You were and will always be, my little sister...the little kid I always tried to protect and take care of. You were sweet, very, very funny and full of life. Always joking and making us all laugh. You were one of the brightest and most talented people I have ever known. So many things came naturally to you...things others had to work to achieve. You had an incredible ability to focus and work hard toward your goal. I'm not sure you ever, ever realized just how accomplished you were.

You were filled with goodness. You had an endless love of all things in pain, whether it be a helpless person or an animal. You wanted to help make all things better. You had a naivete that sometimes prohibited your progress but your motives were always good and caring. There was at times a child-like innocence. You were love and you were loved.

I miss you, Marilyn. The ache and pain in my chest does not diminish with time. My eyes fill with tears when I think about you. There is a space in my life that no one can fill...a loneliness. You were my kid sister.

“ To the family and husband of Marilyn:
We are so sorry to have heard of your loss. Marilyn was such a joy to have in the Epilepsy Monitoring Unit. She will be sadly missed by many of our staff that got to know Mr. Guisinger and Marilyn while she was our patient. Our thoughts and prayers to all of you during this time.
Sincerely,
The Ohio State University Medical Center Epilepsy Monitoring Unit
