“ I worked many years with you, I had so much fun and loved you dearly. I feel blessed to know you and Danny were married and so many great years together. Go in peace my friend, so glad our God will now take care of you. You were a love story and I was there (kinda) through it all. You did so much for so many people and you did it all because you loved people. I miss you already my special friend. Love you, David
