“ Gene and family, I just heard of Martha Gail's passing. I am so sorry and you all have our deepest sympathy. We were neighbors growing up and I have many sweet memories of her that I will have in my heart forever. Will not be coming for visitation because of the virus, but will be praying that God will comfort you during this time. Sending our love. Patsy and James Scott.

“ Martha Gail and I began our friendship in the first grade. She was looking for someone to run away with her and I volunteered. She was always my best buddy and teammate. Staying over her house was always an adventure. Her dad would put fake poop in our bed LoL. She was special and I loved her dearly.
