“ Mom,
You were such an amazing mom!!! Always kind and supportive! I remember many times, sunshine or rain, you would be with me outside practicing my sports! At times, resorting in injury such as black eyes and toe injuries, but that never stopped you:) Even in your final days you were considerate and kind, caring for others.
Now you are next to Jesus, without pain or sorrow, and we're able to experience his birthday with him. What an Angel you have been, are and always will be:)
Love you Mom and miss you!
Deb

That was great Deb. I poured my heart out on here and it didn't take. We could add the time she was plucking your brows And you seized up. I walked in kitchen and said what the h is wrong with my sister. Mom said she is having a seizure... but she said it like Tony Soprano. Fuggetaboutit. I was hoping to see more posts here bout our sweet mom. I'm gonna be 47 I think in February. That's my birthday wish. I'm wanting people to post and tell me a story bout mom. I miss her so bad “ Martha was a wonderful addition to our Pa family. We shared many memories over holidays, celebrations, daily life and food. May God bless and keep her in his peaceful arms as well as be with Debbie and Jason during this difficult time.
