“ We are so sorry to hear this and will be remembering the family in our prayers. We moved to Cheatham County in 1997 and were new to the community. My husband stopped in the Printing Shop to see about getting some business cards made, and Martha introduced herself and was the first one to invite us to visit Bethel church. She also invited us to her home for a neighborhood fellowship meal one night. She was a sweet lady and we will always remember her friendliness and hospitality as we were newcomers to the community.

“ Martha was such a hoot!! Wish I had of visited with her sooner. Not sure if she actually knew how many lives she touched, and how many she led to the Lord!! I am selfishly heartbroken, yet joyfully happy for her. ❤️🕊
