“ I've known Marty for 18 yrs , I met Marty when I moved to pleasantview in 2007. He was like family even though him and my sister had been broken up that didn't change how me and my family felt about Marty.He was always welcome in our homes. Me and Marty had a few good times together as friends we went fishing, we went to church, He was a good friend and me and my family will forever miss him . Rest in Peace Marty !!

So Sorry for your loss. I am not sure If I had met him at one of the reunions that I went to at the Cheatham Damn. back in 2016 and 2018 . . . All though I might not have met him. He is family and I do care deeply. Again My deepest sympathy. Prayers to family and friends. He will always be with you and never forgotten
