“ My prayers and sympathy to the family of Mary! She was such a precious, beautiful lady inside and out!

“ Mary Montgomery was a mother to those that needed one. Her home was open to all. Many's crocheted shaw left her hands to those tearful in loss or grand kids to play in the snow. The church bake sale offered her many delicious pecan pies! She was my gardening buddy, yard sale organizer and Christmas decorator! Most of all she loved me and all those who crossed her path and let them love her back... Who will take up her mantle I do not know... she is home now where she's been looking to go many a year! I miss you Mary with all my heart and rejoice that you are in our Lords hands watching over us and waiting on us to join you. Blessings are your legacy.
