“ Sweet Mary, I have been so blessed to have called you my aunt for half my life and then being reunited with you when mom started attending church with you. I have so enjoyed the past few years getting to see your sweet smile and hearing your sweet voice, rather it be when you were at moms house visiting or seeing you at church. You will be missed dearly by so many people. You were one of kind! Fly high sweet lady.....

“ Thank you for 31 years of being my amazing aunt and always being there for me . And giving little Gary the best 18 months as his great aunt. And big gary the best 3 years of being able to be apart of his life . We love you so much . We will always remember Christmas! And the times we would go out with you and we'd watch family feud, wrestling, masked singer and just being able to enjoy the times together. The baby and you playing the missy fish game or singing Jesus loves me . We love you Mary until we meet again 😊
