“ My name is Sal. I worked with Marye at AIG for many, many years. She was not just a coworker but also a best friend. I only recently found out about her passing because there had been no responses to my text messages. We had a running joke about washing our house windows. She was so smart and helped me manage so many company projects. After I found her obit, I informed all of my coworkers who also considered her a friend. We were all saddened by her passing. She will always be missed and I will always remember her when I look out my dirty windows. Sleep peacefully Marye.

Renee, Michelle, Bob, Phil, grandchildren and family, I was sad to hear about Marye's passing and I am sorry for your loss. Marye and I are cousins and have known each other our whole lives. Her mother Martha was my first cousin although I am only three years older than Marye. (My mother was the youngest of all the Winn kids.) When I was growing up we lived out of state and would come to Cedar Hill every summer to visit with my grandparents, Jake and Hattie Winn, and all the relatives. That's when I would get to see Marye and Bob as well as other cousins. As adults Marye and I reconnected and I would occasionally drive up to Springfield and we would do lunch. As time went by and she was no longer able to get out, we could talk on the phone. I always enjoyed our conversations and we would often share family history information too. I will miss her. Please know I am very sorry for your loss and my deepest sympathy to you all. - Suzanne Pitt Frisina (aka Sue Frisina)
