“ This “gentle giant”, was one of the best friends I ever had. Our many trips together, (Brazil, Pittsburg and Philadelphia) along with our many motorcycle rides are some of my fondest memories. Mike always had a hug and an “I love you” every time I saw him. He loved the Lord and Beth and Seth as well as his many friends with everything he had. I’m already missing you bad Mikey, but I know you are home. Give Chad a big hug from me. I love you Brother.

“ Dear Beth, Seth, Judy & Family,

I'm one of the most fortunate people I know, for one I also carry the GoodCourage name. I'm blessed with the opportunity to have so many wonderful cousins but, Mike and my journey together as kids was beyond comparison, our summers, our trips together as family, your visits to Detroit with unending trips to Greenfield Village, Henry Ford, the coveted Detroit Tiger games.

Going to the movies by your childhood home and watching the sound of music about six times. The memories are boundless and the cherished love shalt never die.

Until our eternal life's meet again cousin ❤️🕊️
